

Theme concerned : Ethics (WP1) and transitions (WP2)

Title: We are a global society sharing the same risks. Two examples of global impacts: Ukrainian crisis on energy market & Healths impact of nanotechnologies.

Date / Place : Friday 28th of October, Hall M001, Phelma-Minatec Building

Max number of students : 50

Module accessible to non-French speaking students : YES

Contact: Eirini Sarigiannidou, eirini.sarigiannidou@grenoble-inp.fr

Description :

09h00-11h00 : Conference : “The impact of the Ukrainian crisis on energy markets (focus on gas markets)”

Speakers (From Paris): Thibaud Vaucouleur, Manager à ENGIE Consulting

Caroline Dornstetter, Senior Manager à ENGIE Consulting

11h00-13h00 : Lunch & Meet with BEST, Board of European Students of Technology organisation

Exchange with members of the organization and share with them an international lunch!

13h00-16h00: Serious Game OGRE

A fun and collaborative serious game to discover and understand the orders of magnitude of energy.

16h00-17h30: Conference : “Global Health Impacts of Nanotechnology Law”

Speaker (From Washington): Dr. Ilise L. Feitshans, International health law scholar & former international civil servant

At the end of the module students will be able to measure the global impact in an international society and the importance of ethics in science.